

EXAMINATION APPLICATION GUIDE

This application guide is intended for those who are applying to write the Alberta Acupuncturist Registration Examinations (AARE). Applications for registration will be reviewed in accordance with the Health Professions Act and the Acupuncturists Profession Regulation. Please note that additional information and documents will be required when you apply for registration. For detailed information, please refer to the Acupuncturists Profession Regulation and Registration Application Process Overview on the CAA website.

INTRODUCTION

Effective December 30, 2020, the profession of acupuncturists in Alberta was transitioned from the Health Disciplines Act to the Health Professions Act. In accordance with the Health Professions Act, registration is required to practice as an acupuncturist in Alberta. Most applicants are required to pass the Alberta Acupuncturist Registration Examinations (AARE) prior to applying for registration. If an applicant is unsure whether they need to take the AARE or not, please refer to the Registration Application Guide for more information.

To apply for the Alberta Acupuncturist Registration Examinations, please ensure your completed application form, all required documents and applicable fees are submitted prior to the application deadline.

Applications received after the deadline will not be considered.

Applications of the Alberta Acupuncturist Registration Examinations are accepted on a “first come, first served” basis. Once the maximum quota of candidates is reached, all other applications will be placed on a candidate waitlist.

If a candidate withdraws or is not registered for the examinations for more than one year, you will not be automatically eligible to take subsequent examinations. Candidates will be required to re-apply and eligibility will be evaluated against current criteria that is required for examination registration.

CANDIDATE HANDBOOKS AND EXAMINATION RESOURCES

The Pan-Canadian Examination Candidate Handbook and the Alberta Acupuncture Registration Examination Candidate Handbook contain important information and policies about the examinations. The purpose of handbooks and blueprints are to help guide and prepare candidates for the process of registering and for completing the Alberta Acupuncturist Registration Examinations. Candidates must review the handbooks prior to submitting their examination application. Additional resources are provided below. This is not an inclusive list of resources:

- Pan-Canadian Examination Candidate Handbook
- Alberta Acupuncture Registration Examination Candidate Handbook
- Entry-Level Occupational Competency Profile
- CAA Safety Handbook

EXAMINATION ATTEMPTS POLICY

- A candidate is allowed three (3) attempts on each component of the Alberta Acupuncturist Registration Examinations.
- If the candidate is not successful upon the third attempt, then such candidate must submit proof that the applicant has completed adequate coursework and/or gained practical experience satisfactory to the Registrar or Registration Committee when they apply for a final attempt on the failed component(s) of the registration examination.

COLLEGE OF ACUPUNCTURISTS OF ALBERTA

- If a candidate is still unsuccessful upon the final attempt, the candidate is required to take a full acupuncture program approved by Council, or a program of studies substantially equivalent to those based in Alberta, before being eligible to attempt the entire registration examination again.

CURRENCY IN PRACTICE REQUIREMENTS

An Applicant for registration as a regulated member of the College of Acupuncturists of Alberta may be registered on the general register if they meet the requirements as prescribed in the Acupuncture Profession Regulation, section 3(a) or (b). The specified 3-year period for an applicant to meet all the requirements under 3(a) is intended to ensure the applicant meets currency-in-practice requirements. However, if an applicant is unable to meet all the requirements within the specified 3-year period, 3(b)(iv) stipulates the options available for applicants to demonstrate their currency-in-practice to the satisfaction of the Registrar or Registration Committee:

(A) the applicant, within the one-year period preceding the date on which the Registrar receives the applicant's completed application for registration, has successfully completed upgrading to the satisfaction of the Registrar or Registration Committee;

(B) the applicant has practised as an acupuncturist in a manner and to an extent that demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Registrar or Registration Committee that the applicant is currently competent to practise as an acupuncturist;

(C) the applicant otherwise demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Registrar or the Registration Committee that the applicant is currently competent to practise as an acupuncturist.

PROCESSING TIME

It takes approximately 2-4 weeks to process your application after receipt of ALL required documents and application fee.

You will be notified to pay the examination fee after your application has been approved. After receipt of your examination fee, a confirmation letter will be sent to you. Due to the pandemic, for effective communication, communications may be via email or regular mail.
